4. You should come to the next court hearing on the date identified above. At that hearing you can tell the court whether you agree or disagree with this order and the court will explain what happens next.

5. If you do not come to the next court hearing, this order may stay in place until its end date.

6. If necessary, you can ask the court to have the court hearing very urgently (before the next hearing date in this order) but you must explain in writing why it is so urgent, and you must send a copy of your explanation to the applicant at the same time as sending it to the court.

7. When it is not possible for you to make your own application (if you want to do so) within court hours, you can contact the security office at the Royal Courts of Justice (020 7947 6000 or 020 7947 6260) and a duty judge may agree to consider it.

8. Family Procedure Rules Part 3A.2A will apply and the court will put in place special measures as the applicant is assumed to be a person whose participation is diminished by reason of the allegations of domestic abuse.
